1st April 2006 – 31st March 2007

Hamsterley Trailblazers aim to create and renovate cycle trails in Hamsterley Forest, working in partnership with other groups. By joining Hamsterley Trailblazers you can help to realise the potential of the forest as a year-round cycling venue and a mountain biking centre of excellence. All membership fees go to providing benefits to our members and improving the trails within the forest. By becoming a member of the Hamsterley Trailblazers you will be eligible for the following benefits:

- Help design and build England's best mountain bike trails.
- Free access to Hamsterley Forest for your vehicle (visit 8 times in a year and your membership pays for itself!)*
- Membership to an on-line discussion forum where you can have your say and make a difference to mountain biking in County Durham.
- Fully-maintained website which has a wealth of information about trailbuilding, rides, photos and the latest developments in Hamsterley Forest – take a look at www.hamsterley-trailblazers.co.uk
- Opportunity to be part of a social group of like-minded riders on organised rides and other social activities.
- Free coaching on club rides.
- Discount on holidays, skills courses, weekend breaks, instructor courses etc - get better for less!
- Discount with various cycle retailers - cheaper bikes and parts!

Membership fees 2006/07                      Individual*: £15                      Family: £20

Please note: Only persons aged 17 years or over can apply for membership. Under-17s can attend club activities only under the supervision of a current club member, either as a guest or as part of a family membership. Up to two vehicles can be listed on a Forestry Pass – only one pass will be issued.

We also welcome corporate membership. Interested parties should contact the Club Secretary via email on vicky@century.gb.com
